SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY, -The anniversary meeting of the Sunday School of the M. E. Church, South, was held, yesterday, ander the most auspicious circumstances. The day was clear and pleasant, the singing of the day was clear and pleasant, the singing of the propriate and effective.

Dr. Busey and Mr. Beall the ministers in charge of the church were exceedingly happy and entertaining in their remarks at the 11 o clock services. During these exercises the scholars occupied the galleries, the girls being on the south and the boys on the north sides, and their singing was certainly very fine.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock an experience meeting of considerable interest was held in the Sunday School froom where interesting addresses were made to the large audience assembled. The congregation was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. Dr. Kilgore, of the M. P.

At the 7½ o'clock services an unusually large engregation was present. The children of the school again occupied the galleries. The ser-mon on this occasion was delivered by Rev. Thomas Guard, of the M. E. Church, Baltimore, who chose for his subject the text found in the 15th verse, 57th chapter of the prophecies of Isaiah: "For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy, I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrice and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to re-vive the heart of the contrite ones." Owing to the restlessness of some persons, not children, but adults, those in the rear of the church were doubtless unable to follow the thread of the orator's discourse, and indeed for the sake of those who attend services for the purpose of such restless spirits would remain at home. It suffice it to say that as a pulpit orator, he can hardly be said te have a superior; his imagery s beautiful, his every motion grace. The behaviour of the Sunday School children deserves hey rendered the different pieces, especially "Jubilate Deo," and "Strike Oh! Strike" is worthy of special remark.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.-The weather yesterday, though cool, was pleasant, and many persons attended the services at the several churches. Rev. Mr. McCormick occupied the pulpit of Christ Church, Rev. Thomas N. Davy preached in the M. E. Church in the morning, Rev. Mr. Guard in the M. E. Church South at night, and Rev. Mr. Mirrick in the esident clergy. The following is a report Men's Christian Association:
"The St. Asaph street Sabbath School was well attended yesterday, there being an increasof number of teachers and scholars. The room was not large enough to contain all that were f scholars, but the teachers were few; the deportment and attention of the former to their dudies gave great satisfaction to the committee; largly attended, the exercises were of the stervent character, and a large committee report satisfactory work as the result of their labor at that point. The King and West sts. prayer meeting at 5½ p. m. was worked by a full corps of members, but the gathering was not large; however, those present gave great attention to the speakers, and the exercises were very interesting and gratifying. The Sunday afternoon prayer meeting in the Baptist Church had its usual good congregation and soul-stirring services; the speakers on the occasion took advantage of the presence of the youth of both sexes to make fervent appeals to them to devote their young lives to the Master's service. 'This meeting will be held next Sunday in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ALMOST A DEAD BEAT. - Yesterday evening while the police were after some boys on the railroad train, a stranger in going from one ear to another, tripped, and would have fallen on the track had he not been caught by officer dones. As it was, he was badly hurt, but when he had sufficiently recovered to talk he informed the officers that he had no money and was trying to "beat" his way south; that seeing the policemen on the train he supposed they were after him, and that he was trying to escape from them when he tripped. As the train street depot, he was told to "beat ahead.

South, to a very large and most attentive aulience, one of the most cloquent and interesting sermons ever listened to in this place. He had not, before, been heard in this city, and but few were aware of his power and abilities: But all who were present now know and appreciate the force of his reasoning and the brilliancy of his imagination. There is a general desire that he may again be invited to preach in our city.

ARREST OF FREE RIDERS. -The boarding of the passenger trains on the W. C. V. M. & G. S. R. PROSPECTS OF ALEXANDRIA. - The Alexandria correspondent of the Washington Chronical, says :-- "The evidences of improvement in our city are very numerous. The strides forward within the past year have been great. The opening of the Chesapeake and Olio railroad to the Ohio has turned up a trump card for Old Virginia, and Alexandria comes in for a share of the spoils. Already have our merchants received consignments of coal and salt from the Kanawha country, and larger amounts' will undoubtedly tollow. Under the new management of our Washington and Ohio road we hope soon to open it up to the coal and iron fields of Hampshire, which will also add much to our present trade.

"The situation of Alexandria city, in a commercial point of view, is undoubtedly fine. With railroads leading in all directions, riverand canal navigation by which to receive and for May. ship our manufactured goods and minerals, it rivals any city in the Union. The iron, mar-ble, and brownstone found in inexhaustible quantities along the railroads leading to Alexandria, with the coal from Cumberland, Kanawha, and Hampshire, all point to this city as the great manufacturing city of the South. -"There are demands for houses which, of course will have to be built. Some of our more enterprising men of capital have already taken the initiative, and are, in a small way trying to improve. The outskirts of the city show signs of life and activity, and the streets are being graded, new ones opened up, lots inclosed, and small houses being erected. Among the enterprises already in operation and being pushed forward are the steam wheat mill of George Y. Worthington, the sash, door, and blind factories of Rishiell & Hooge and Jamieson, Uhler & Co., the brick-yards of W. D. Corse & Co. and J. T. Lucas, the plaster mills of C. F. Lee, hearing and being edified, it would be well if jr., and Suttle & Stuart, the Mount Vernou cotton factory, the steam bakery of George R. is impossible with our limited space to give Hill & Co., the Vienna brewery of R. Portner, even a synopsis of Mr. Guard's sermon, but the spoke factory of A Rosenthall, the sumacmills of J. E. McGraw and A. Rosenthall, the Cameron distillery of P. Fagan, the Alexandria distillery of Conrad, Mason & Co., the Alexandria street passenger railway, the Agricultural special commendation, and the manner in which and Industrial Association, and other important interests, such as the coal trade and our Fishtown interests. With railroad connections North, East, South, and West, with water connections to the principal cities North and South, and a daily increasing business by the its affairs. developing of the varied industries of our State, what is to prevent our old city from taking the lead among the cities of the South.

THE FISHERY. -Since Saturday's report the receipts of fish at Fishtown have been 250,000 herring, which sold at from $5 to $6 per thous-Baptist Church in the morning. With these and, and 18,000 shad, which sold at from $94 to $11½ per hundred. The supply of rock and perch still remains small, and such fish sell the work done during the day by the Young high. The eatch at the Virginia shores seems to be falling off, while that of the Maryland shores does not increase. The supply is not equal to the demand and the market is brisk.

FIGHT. - A considerable crowd was attracted present. We are making an effort to procure to the northern end of Fairfax street early this or build a larger room. There was no meet-ing at the Jail. The King and West streets Thomas Taylor and John Creegan,—two men Sunday School was attended by a full number | who occupied a house in that locality, -during which the former picked up a hatchet and cut the latter on the head, severely, but, it is thought, not seriously. Taylor was held by the session closed with an address by Mr. Jas. Justice May in the sum of $500 bail for one E. Caton. The Alms House meeting was very week, to await the result of Creegan's wounds.

They were reintered in the same place.

> Cow KILLED .- A cow belonging to Mr. Owen Carroll was run over by a local train on the A. & W. Railroad Saturday morning near the canal basin, and had to be kitled afterwards. The engineer has since been summoned to the Mayor's office to answer the charge of running his train at a too rapid rate through the city.

> NARROW ESCAPE. - A child of Mr. Robert Crook, three years old, fell from the second story window of that goutleman's house, near the corner of Columbus and Princess streets, on Saturday afternoon last, to the brick pavement of the yard below, but, it is thought, re ceived no serious injury.

INEBRIETY. -The police, this morning, reported more cases of drunkenness on the streets yesterday than for many preceding Sundays, some of the unfortunates having spent, in buywas only going from the wharf to the Henry ing liquor during the day, the whole of their week's wages, and leaving their families almost

LOCAL BREXITIES.

A disturbance occurred among the colored people at the Freedmen's Village, at Arlington, last Saturday night, which, however, was quicted without the spilling of other than dogs blood. The dogs of Tom. Owens and Rey. R. S. Laws attacked and killed the dog of W. A. Row, the Superintendent of the Township, at whose instance the Justice of the Peuce issued an order requiring the death of the offending curs, and the execution of this order was the cause of the row. The City Council Finance Committee, with the counsel of the A. & W. R. R. Co., held a conference to day about the claim of the city against the railroad company for back taxes, but without arriving at a definite understand ing the conference adjourned to a future time.
